A WORTHY REPRESENTATIVE.

The Louisville Herald of last Tuesday contained the following notice concerning our Representative in the lower House of the General Assembly:

"One of Kentucky's best representatives in the General Assembly now in session is the Hon. Richard S. Rose of the Sixty-ninth Legislative district, comprising Knox and Whitley counties. These counties are fortunate in having such a legislator at Frankfort as Mr. Rose. Their interest in good law-making is profound. Knox and Whitley have incalculable natural resources. Their people are second to none in intelligence, patriotism and ambition.

They desire State policies inviting foreign capital and promoting domestic enterprise in every lawful, modern fashion. Mr. Rose is at Frankfort doing his duty faithfully, loyally, fearlessly and successfully for his fine constituency, and for the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Attentive to duty in the legislative chamber, Representative Rose is also assiduous in the sessions of the important committees, on Kentucky Statutes, Land Titles and Criminal Law, of which he is a member.

Representative Rose is an honor to Kentucky Republicanism, to the mountain people and to the entire State.

REV. DR. E. W. POWELL, pastor of the first Christian church in Louisville, two weeks ago, said to his large congregation that the next thing the Governor could do, to celebrate "Home Coming Week" at Louisville this summer, would be to pardon all those who have been charged with the murder of Goebel.

Dr. Powell renewed the suggestion last Sunday night. Among other things he said:

"I dare not minimize. I dare not affirm that justice should not be meted out to the guilty, but these men, some of whom have been in prison four or five years, and some of whom are wanderers on the face of the earth, are not known beyond the shadow of a doubt, to be criminals. If guilty, depend upon it, that in their far country they have known the loneliness and the wretchedness and the blame and the self-loathing of the criminal. If not guilty, it has all been a huge miscarriage of justice. But could it not be a splendid thing, would it not mean the introduction of a new spirit into Kentucky, if the Governor of the State, on the occasion of this grand reunion of former Kentuckians, should proclaim a political amnesty."

The suggestion of two weeks ago proposing a Building and Loan Association for our town has caused some of our business men to begin to put their heads together and we would not be surprised to see such a thing established here at an early date. There are several persons here now who would be glad of a chance to build a home if there was a way provided whereby they could pay for same on the monthly installment plan, and a company of this kind would be just the thing to give this needed relief.

It would cause an active movement in real estate and cause our town to increase in population and give us more property which would increase the valuation of our town, this would enable us to have better improvements, and it would help all along the line.

One improvement calls for another and in a short time we would enjoy the luxuries of an up-to-date city. Let's get a move on ourselves and make Barbourville what she ought to be—the best town in South-eastern Kentucky.

It is encouraging to note that the interest in our graded school proposition is growing and our people are beginning to discuss it among themselves, and so far as we have been able to learn, there has not been a dissenting voice. There is not a thing in the way of accomplishing this if we will only take hold and make the start. Let's not delay the matter.

Down in the Falls City, "who struck Billy Fatterson?" is no longer agitating the populace. The burning question is Louisville now is: "Where did Aaron get the bonds?"

EVERY dog has his day, even in the Kentucky Legislature. It looks very much like Kentucky will have a dog tax law, unless the Governor saves the dog with the veto tax.

Miss Moore, the music teacher at the Institute, has been invited to sing in the Baptist church, both at the morning and evening services, in Middleboro on next Sunday. She has won laurels for herself here by singing in the different churches, and we predict for her great success in other cities where she has been invited to sing. Whenever it is known that she is to sing in any particular church here, that church is sure to be crowded on that occasion.

THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

There is no doubt but that a large percent of the degradation, disgrace, ruin and crime among the young, springs from the habit of night prowling, corner loafing and kindred acts by both sexes in city, town and hamlet all over this broad country. Any person who keeps their eyes open knows this. Hundreds of boys and girls are out at night, and we all know that many influences for evil and none for good surround them continually. A curfew restriction may be devised as old fashioned and puritanical, but the fact remains that there is vastly less prowling in towns that have a curfew ordinance and enforce it.

THE fairest, sweetest joy is that brought to a man by the loving hand of a wife. The sweetest thought is of that life journey, when, hand in hand, she, the wife, becomes the guiding star as he scales the sunlit mountain of success, or, with him, she penetrates the shadow-laden and dismal valley of failure, despair and grief. The ecstasy of joy or the pain of grief cannot change divinity of a wife's love. The blackest cloud that can darken the horizon of man is the one, which, encircling the brow with death, takes from a husband's embrace his life companion. It is then that all cares, sorrows and pains of life seem bled into one: it is then that an unfathomable ocean seems to engulf him with its angry billows. If all husbands would ponder over these thoughts at the beginning of the new year and treat his wife as it was to be their last year together upon earth the divorce courts would be advertising for business long before the close of 1906.

FOR THE BOYS

YOU who are men in years and you, just entering manhood, stop and consider life as it is. Remember, "action is the essence of character," good or bad. This character building is a daily thing, so consider your ways and weigh your actions, and build wisely.

What are your aims? Are you striving to develop yourselves, mentally and morally, so as to have an influence in your community? Our boys will be the future men of our country, our law-makers, and they should be men who honor the law; they should be men of principle, who cannot be corrupted by bribes; who have the moral courage to do their duty. When a community lacks such men, evil and corruption predominate. How much the well-being of a community depends upon the honest, upright men in it.

Many temptations beset the young and they come in contact with evil influence in every vocation in life. Yet there is within yourselves, boys, a counteracting force (if used) that will enable you to withstand temptations, and to overcome the evil influences with which you will surely come in contact. Bring your reasoning powers to bear. Argue with yourselves the certain moral degradation if you continue in a wrong course. Bring your will power to bear and keep under the low appetite and the little, mean things that corrupt any who give way to them. Have a high standard, choose a right, open path in life. Nothing to hide, nothing to be ashamed of. Listen to the counsel of your parents. Seek the home nest and its pure influences. Shun places of vice and evil in every form. Look carefully over the record of the past. Are you proud of it? Are you willing it should be read out? Are you satisfied with it? If you can't say yes, let your every effort be to better your condition.

OUR PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

"I think people rather often completely misapprehend what are really the important questions. The question of the tariff, the currency, or even the regulation of railroad rates are all subordinate to the great moral movements which mean the preservation of the individual in his or her relation to the home, because if the homes are all straight, the State will take care of itself." The above are the words of President Roosevelt in an address to a "White House" delegation. It should have been in his annual message to congress. These few words are the "milk in the coconut," and if heeded by us all there would be no necessity in the future of a message to congress, eight columns in length, in order to call the attention of that body to the many evils existing.

The above words of our president should be printed in letters of gold so plainly that "the who runs may read," and then framed and hung in every home in this broad land. There are no politics in these words. They are cold facts, known to us all.

When the homes are properly regulated, the tariff, the railroad and the currency will not need laws to regulate them.

When the press and our public orators unite in giving their best thoughts and attentions to the homes, all our great national problems will soon solve themselves.

When the homes are right the entire country will be right. The questions that effect the morals and purity of our homes are the real and vital questions.

Our political speakers appeal only to partisan feelings and your pocket-book. You never hear them using their eloquence in an honest endeavor to better our homes which are the foundation stones upon which rest all our laws and institutions.

tions, both state and national.

The voters who go out from moral, pure homes, will place moral and pure men in office, who will give us honest and pure railroad and tariff regulations. All we need is more moral and pure homes so as to supply us with a majority of the voters.

Our president takes this view of it, and it is that which has brought him so close to the honest thinking people of all parties. Let us repeat his words: "If the homes are all straight, the state will take care of itself." It is this thought that inspires us to give so much space to this particular department of our paper.

SPEAK kindly, move quietly, do duty cheerfully, love pleasantly, bear patiently, reprove tenderly, love constantly in your homes.
